Pexmas is Peckham's home grown free entry festive market; an annual celebration of local business, creativity and community spirit and a fixture on the capital's festive market scene. Now running for over a decade; last year saw over 10,000 visitors.

This year we return to the legendary Peckham cultural hotspot, Copeland Park, already teeming with fantastic independent businesses, studios and creative hubs, for 2 days of shopping from hyper local and South / East London small enterprises. Every year we welcome a mix of well established and new businesses; celebrated favourites and new discoveries.

At Pexmas this year you will find over 100 different independent boutique stalls each day with handmade and small batch gifting products including prints, plants, beauty, products, ceramics, clothes, accessories, jewellery, homewares, food and drinks, textiles - and a million things you never knew you wanted! Tick off every item on your Christmas list among our stalls - and maybe some treats for yourself!
